EDITOR'S NOTES

Many individuals contributed to Outlook '73. I would like to acknowledge these contributions.

Duke Hospital Printer printed the letter that was sent to each freshman.

Mr. Robert H. Ballantyne made address labels available to our staff.

Members of the Class of 1973 voluntarily submitted photographs to our staff. They also placed advance orders for Outlook '73, thus assuring our financial position.

Dean Lillian Lee, Woman's College; Dean Ella Shore, School of Nursing; and Dean Richard Cox, Trinity College and School of Engineering sent lists of freshmen rooming assignments and box numbers to the staff early this summer.

Dean Annie Leigh Broughton granted Debbie and me permission to return to campus early to sell Outlook.

Monette Sims and Jean Helms, two of my summer dorm mates, sorted photographs and receipts when deadlines were perilously near.

My parents helped mail letters, and encouraged me to reach the deadlines on time.

Mr. Wallace Seeman patiently assembled the confused material comprising Outlook '73. Without his understanding attitude when something did not quite meet specifications, I could never have completed Outlook.

Debbie Haan has been an ideal business manager. Her efficient work, her encouraging attitude, and her creative suggestions have been greatly appreciated. Outlook is as much Debbie's creation as it is mine.

We wanted Outlook to be unique. There have been many changes made; there is still need for improvement. Every freshman who contributed to Outlook is included in this handbook. Pictures that were not properly proportioned are included at the end of each section. Possibly this difficulty will one day be eliminated. Outlook will expand in years to come, but this year's Outlook is the most complete one ever assembled. If the members of the Class of 1973 are as unique as their response, their contribution to Duke University will be overwhelming.

I extend my welcome to the Class of 1973, and I gratefully complete the editorship of Outlook '73.
